come here instead?

So, he set up Amara Raja's first factory, not in a buzzing industrial district, but right where it was most needed.

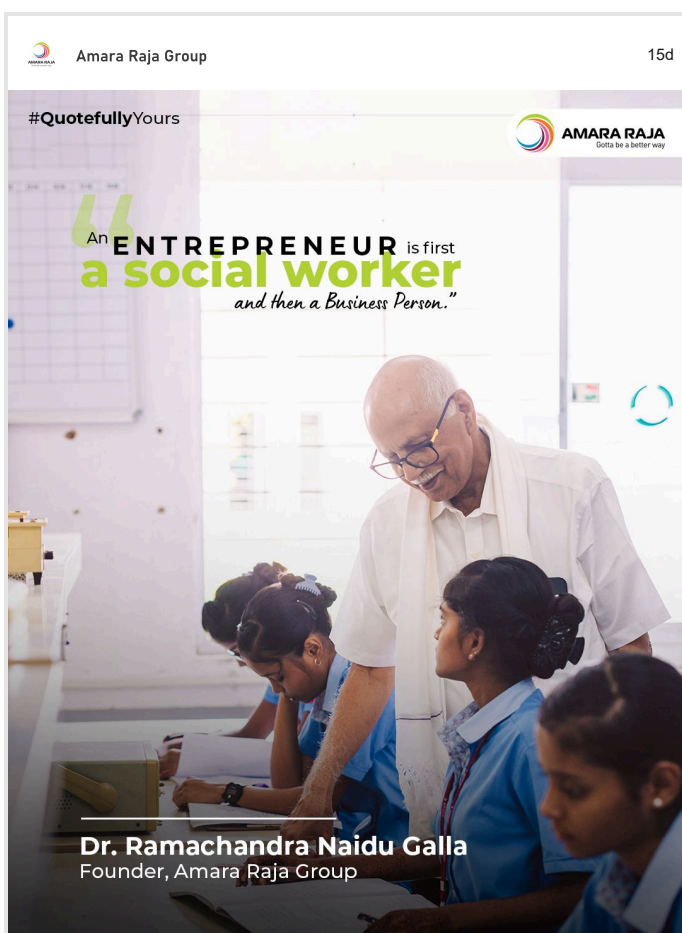

That one bold step led to the birth of a Group that spans energy, electronics, infrastructure, food, and more. It has created over 21,000 jobs, built non-migratory livelihoods, and transformed the region around it.

Because real progress isn't just measured in numbers, it's felt in the lives changed, and the homes that no longer have to send their dreams away.

First came the heart, then the hustle. For Dr. R N Galla, business has always been a way to serve. At Amara Raja, this meant more than creating jobs — it meant opening doors.

Over 80% of our factory team found their first employment here. But the journey didn't stop there. Schools were built. Villages were nurtured. Because building better lives was always the real bottom line.
